Fundraising
	Main fundraising routes have been put on hold due to covid. The PC have agreed to meet in January to discuss fundraising ideas/opportunities for 2022. Healthy Heart Fund – Total raised £3324.63 from sponsored run. Sponsor money raised from the Healthy Heart Fund was initially to be used for benches in the playgrounds. The quote received outweighed the funds raised. The PC has asked the school for suggestions on how best to use the money. Mr C suggested outdoor equipment that can be taken in and out of the playground. Items included games tables, small sports equipment, etc. These types of items would be enjoyed by all year groups and would allow pupils and staff to create different areas of play. The PC suggested a list be drawn up of what items the school needs/wants.	SLT/Mr C
Any Other Competent Business:
• Food Bank Collection	All food bank donations should be handed into the school.
• Eco Committee Meeting	RJ – Vice Chair, met with the school’s Eco Committee which is made up of pupils and staff. The children discussed the impact of the plastic water bottles used within the school and the water wasted. They talked about reducing the use of one-time plastic bottles and different ways to save water. All pupils are encouraged to bring their own bottles to school.
